

FORGE REAL ESTATE PARTNERS III, LP
ANNOUNCES THE DEVELOPMENT OF

CAUSEWAY SHOPPING CENTER

ABOUT CAUSEWAY

Forge Real Estate Partners III, LP (“FREP III”) has sourced an off-market opportunity to acquire Causeway Shopping Center, a 107,171 square foot shopping center located in Melbourne, Florida. National tenants include Ross Dress for Less, Office Depot and Beall’s Outlet and represent 71.7% of the leased gross leasable area. The Property is well-located at the southeast intersection of South Patrick Drive and East Eau Gallie Blvd, the primary east/west thoroughfare that leads to the area’s beaches. Traffic counts at this intersection average 52,000 vehicles per day.

ABOUT FREP III

FREP III is the latest in a series of value-add retail real estate private equity funds sponsored by Forge Capital Partners, LLC of Tampa, Florida. Over the past 12 years, Forge Capital Partners has invested over $400 million of capital acquiring, developing, renovating and repositioning urban in-fill, grocery-anchored neighborhood shopping centers located throughout the major metropolitan areas of the southeastern U.S.

FREP III is a joint venture between Forge Capital Partners, LLC & The Sembler Company, Inc. FREP III is still in the acquisition phase with current investments totaling over $100 million in Florida, Texas, and North Carolina.

Investors in FREP III include Wells Fargo, SunTrust, Raymond James, Regions, PNC, HSBC, United Community Bank, BMO Harris Bank, BB&T, Cadence Bank, Capital Bank, ERS Private RE.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

FORGE
CAPITAL
PARTNERS

Caetie Berger
V.P. of Acquisitions
(813) 574-6775

cberger@forgecapitalpartners.com

TYPICAL ACQUISITION

- Size ranging from 75,000 to 250,000 sf
- Located in or adjacent to a low or moderate income census tract
- Difficult to duplicate in-fill locations
- Acquisition price below replacement cost
- Opportunities for redevelopment such as vacant anchor boxes or leases at below-market rents
- Dominant anchors, preferably a grocer and a soft goods discounter, both of whom have significant market share
- A stabilized unleveraged yield on cost of greater than 9%
- Anchor tenants such as a dominant discounter (e.g. Wal-Mart or Target) or “Category Killer” (e.g. Home Depot or Staples) for larger centers